

10 Days - $10 - 10 Days - $10 - 10 Days - $10.

Remember, 10 Days and $10.00!

Another Beautiful Demonstration of Cash.

For 10 Days Commencing Friday the 21st we will sell anyone of our $20, $25, $30 and $35 Ladies' Suits for - - - - - $10.00

You never in all of your life have seen such bargains and it will be a long time before you will ever have the opportunity of buying such high grade Ladies' Tailored Suits for such a price - - - - - $10.00

Should you have ten suits you will not miss it by buying one of these suits for - - - - - $10.00

We pay railroad fare on all purchases of ten dollars and over. We also alter free of charge any of our suits, and as long as you have the suit we will clean, repair and press same free of charge. As there will be a rush to get these suits we would say that you had better come early and get first choice.

Remember that this is the big store, and that we carry everything in Men's Clothing, Hats and Furnishings. Everything in Ladies' and Childrens ready-to-wear, and shoes for all.

You can positively save from 10 to 25 per cent at all times by trading at this big cash store.

Slater

Rose & Buckner Co.

Slater

Stores at Centralia, Norborne, Boonville, Marshall, Slater, Cape Girardeau.

Local Items

Gus Windmeyer was among the Grand Pass visitors here Saturday.

J. C. Hayes was here from Shackelford Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Riggins were here from Herndon Monday.

J. M. Houston was a pleasant caller from Grand Pass Monday.

Join the fox hunters at Elk Lick next week. Hunt lasts all week.

Miss Tillie Cook was a fair visitor from West Glasgow Monday.

Mrs. Alice Fulkerson will spend next week at J. T. Fulkerson's of Salt Springs.

The juniors of the high school spent Monday afternoon at Wilton Springs.

J. B. White received word from J. L. Woodbridge Saturday that Mrs. Woodbridge was much better.

Mrs. Hattie Wall, of Lincoln, Neb. was a guest of J. M. Huff's family last week.

Miss Anna Booth returned last week from a visit to Quincy, Ill., and Centralia, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reidenbach of New Frankfort spent Thursday at Robt. Smith's in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McAllister were here from McAllister Springs Monday.

Mrs. Frank Culver and children are visiting her parents in Grenola, Kansas.

F. W. Taylor is back from a hunting and fishing trip to the Ozarks. He is feeling much improved by the outing.

Miss Edith Jones of east of town left Tuesday on a visit to friends at Guthrie and Blackwell, Okla., for three or four weeks.

Jas. Solomon, northwest of town had all his sheep, numbering fifteen, killed by dogs Thursday night of last week.

G. G. Haring was here from near Gilliam Monday taking a "day off." He says he's missed only one day's work since last October.

J. E. Hoeker and Misses Ada Noel and Emma Bartels were here from Sweet Springs on court business Tuesday.

Thos. Lacy came in from Kansas City this week where he has been sick for some time. He is still looking poorly.

The Republican county central committee will meet at the circuit court room in Marshall tomorrow—Saturday, May 22d at 10 a. m.

J. C. Gibson and family of Nelson passed through Marshall Saturday to spend a few days in Lafayette county with relatives.

A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cross at Hotel Fremont Thursday morning. Mr. Cross is night clerk at the hotel.

Walter Lunbeck and wife, Chas. Shafer and wife, Mrs. Sarah Baker, R. C. Potter and Jas. Waller were here from Malta Bend Monday.

Mrs. A. E. Riley of Grand Pass and guest Mrs. N. H. Webb of Independence, were here Saturday shopping.

Miss Julia James and Miss Burns Potten went to Elmwood Friday to visit Dr. James and from there to Sedalia to visit Joseph James and family.

Mrs. John R. Hall entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. J. C. Thompson, who leaves shortly for Lamar to reside.

Miss Ella Smith of Sweet Springs one of our valuable correspondents is sojourning at Elkins, New Mexico, where she is having a delightful time among the mountains.

There were half a dozen arrests in quick succession Saturday evening on charge of fighting and drinking. The cases will come up today and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sampson and little adopted son, Johnnie Miller Sampson, were here from Rose Valley Monday, guests of Mrs. Sampson's parents E. J. Covey and wife.

Mrs. E. S. Meier and children moved this week to East St. Louis to join Mr. Meier. We regret very much to lose this splendid family but wish them success and happiness in their new home.

D. E. Hammond was in Slater Friday in the interest of his firm. He said Ed Elmore is feeling bigger than he looks, over his appointment as coal oil inspector. Mr. Elmore thinks this "grafting" business is alright.

Thos. O'Donnell says that while passing through Canyon City, Colo., a boy on the train called to his father and pointing to a negro on the platform said, "Oh, there's the Devil." He had not seen a colored man before.

Joseph Robert, Miss Lillie Bud and Miss Moriah Hyatt, children of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hyatt, of northwest of town, went to Glasgow Thursday of last week to visit their uncle's family.

Decoration Day services will not be held on Saturday, May 29th at Ridge Park cemetery as announced last week owing to a clause in the cemetery associations by-laws requiring election of officers on Monday following when Decoration Day falls on Sunday.

Mrs. Richard Nuckles' uncle, Sidney Robinson, of near Bowling Green, died on May 6th. An aunt, Mrs. Walter Nunn, also died May 12th at Bowling Green. The aunt was stricken with paralysis several hours after her brother's death.

Attorney D. D. Duggins received a telegram Tuesday that the case of Lynch vs. Huston had been decided in his favor by the Kansas City Court of Appeals. J. P. Huston was executor of the Mike Lynch estate and the suit was brought by Will Lynch to determine the construction of a deed.

W. S. Taylor was here from Nelson Friday and made us a profitable call. He says carpenters are busy around Nelson. New residences have been completed for Tom Gillespie and James Suther-

lin. Boyd Davis is preparing to build a store room for his poultry business and other improvements are under way.

Mrs. E. E. Froman, of St. Louis, arrived Tuesday from St. Louis to visit her father Thad Barcafer, at Hotel Friemonth a few days. Mrs. Froman is a splendid musician and singer and our people may have the opportunity Sunday of hearing her.

M. I. Barron was in from north of town Monday hunting something to eat. He said his folks are away on a visit and since he has to feed the chickens, hogs and cows hasn't time to get his own meals so comes to town. He says if his folks don't get back soon he'll have to advertise for someone else.

Ellen, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bickers died at their home in Kansas City Sunday, May 16. The remains were brought to Marshall Monday and in charge of Undertaker Walker were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery. Dr. W. H. Black conducted the funeral services at the grave. Mrs. Bickers was formerly Miss Florence Tickemeyer of west of town.

The Daily Democrat News said that a young lady from Gilliam returned home "toady" Saturday. Under the circumstances it's only a mistake but if it had been a strapping young farmer who returned home "toady" there would probably be a "mixup" on the editorial department. The editor is in luck.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vogt, of Grand Pass and daughters, Mrs. M. A. Smith ordered the Republic, Kansas, Mrs. Sarah V. Bocker of this city and little daughter, Agnes, and Miss Rhoda Vogt, of Orrick, Ray county, made this office a pleasant call Saturday. Mrs. M. A. Smith ordered the Republic to follow her to her home, a year. They also visited photographed McChesney and had family group pictures taken.

There was quite a little excitement on the north side of the square Saturday evening when a horse driven by Mrs. N. E. Howery and daughter commenced kicking the buggy to which it was hitched.

After breaking the shafts and kicking loose the horse ran away. Mrs. Howery had her hand slightly bruised and the contents of the buggy suffered considerably.

John C. Maloney was here from Cretcher Tuesday where he is visiting his parents. Mr. Maloney returned from the Philippines on April 15th, on the transport Sheridan where he was in the service of Uncle Sam. He enlisted in 1911 as a private and was successively promoted to corporal, sergeant, batallion sergeant major, second lieutenant, first lieutenant, making a very creditable record. He resigned on account of his health, but says he is feeling pretty well again.

Mrs. A. P. Bishop, of Miami, Mo., is writing a series of interesting articles for the Marshall papers. Mrs. Bishop before her marriage was Miss Mollie Bennett of this city and being a sister of the Ledger Owl she can't help from wielding a trenchant pen and writing interesting articles.—Mexico Ledger.

Mrs. L. C. Holman of Dallas, Tex. and Mrs. Robt. Kincaid, of Walker Mo., returned home last week after a weeks visit with the families of Robt. Smith and Dr. Switzer. Mrs. Smith accompanied them as far as Boonville.

Walter Terrell this week wrote his father J. M. Terrell, from Texas, where he is staying with his uncle, William Terrell, that they were already harvesting their first potato crop and expect 300 bushels.

A movement is on foot to set the clock back two hours in summer so as to give us a daylight day. It's a splendid idea, but a still better way would be a concerted action on the part of the business world to commence business at six instead of eight and retire at eight instead of ten or eleven o'clock. A little horse-sense all along the line would solve the problem in the identical way proposed without "monkeying" with the clocks, and we'd all be better off than when lying in bed till the sun strikes nine and groping our way home in the dark.

L. E. Merkins has been very low the past several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rothrock and Miss Ida Mayse were here from Rose Valley yesterday shopping.

Miss Rosa Richter will teach the Central school near Shackelford next winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Taylor were here from Herndon yesterday parting from surplus cash.

Thos. Landon left this week for the Southwest in the interest of his land company.

Mrs. W. W. Hains is in Kansas City, visiting her mother and also to attend the marriage last night of her sister and Roy Jones.

Commencement exercises of M. V. C. will be held during the coming week. A splendid program is in store for our people.

H. A. Thomas, the Salt Springs merchant returned from Hot Springs Sunday evening much improved.

Miss Frances Vardeman of Nelson was in Slater Monday returning home by way of Marshall Tuesday. She is one of Slater's efficient teachers.

Mrs. S. W. Findley and children of Urbana, Ill., are the guests of Mrs. Findley's sisters, Mrs. E. M. Wright and Miss Lottie Stewart.

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Wakefield and little daughter are here from St. Louis to spend commencement week with Mrs. Wakefield's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Black.

Mrs. S. J. Everman and grandson Buford, Jr., of Kansas City are visiting her niece and sister, Mrs. F. H. Smith and Mrs. S. F. Lindsey both of this city.

W. W. Haines, the real estate man says his brother George, of near Slater was kicked on his head Monday evening by a horse which he was breaking. The kick was a bad one but he is doing nicely.

Bidstrup & Hammond Wednesday received two car loads of Quincy and Harry granite. Mr. Hammond says that now they have the largest stock of marble and granite ever in Saline county.